ONE ON THE FISHERMAN.

A contributor who declines to allow the use of his name, but who admits a weakness for rod and reel, sends this one in and says that it struck him as being about the best one he ever heard, says The Commoner:

A fisherman whipping a stream finally came to a point where a high wall came down close to the banks, throwing a grateful shade over a likely looking spot for angling. Suddenly he was startled by hearing a voice from the rear:

"Hello, down there."

Looking over his shoulder the angler saw a man peering over the wall and grinning a friendly if somewhat vacant grin.

"Hello," replied the angler.

"What yer doin' down there?" queried the man on the wall.

"Fishing."

"Gettin' any bites?"

"No, I haven't had a single nibble, my friend."

"How long have you been fishin' in?"

"O, four or five hours."

"You'd better come on in then, 'cause this is the humane asylum," shouted the man on the wall.

R. A. Bailey, Agent.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Allen are visiting friends in this city.

Mrs. E. R. Williamson departed Saturday for Nevada on a visit to her daughter, Mrs. Harry Owee.

Miss Rotta Forrer is visiting her sisters in Parson, Kans., this week.

WRECK ON MISSOURI PACIFIC.

The early morning south bound passenger train No. 209 was derailed and wrecked near Arthur Tuesday morning.

The train was behind time and was going at a high rate of speed when one of the cars jumped the track and plunging through a trestle wrecked the entire train with the exception of two sleepers on the rear end.

A negro who was riding the blind baggage was instantly killed, being caught between the cars and horribly mangled.

Nearly everybody on the train was more or less bruised and shaken but luckily there were no fatalities among the passengers.

Traffic was tied up during the day while the track was being cleared and trains were detoured by way of Ft. Scott.

Following were among the injured:—L. S. Ayres, Joplin, back hurt; Mrs. J. E. Hook, Appleton City, bruised face; Mrs. Mary Teeter Jasper, Mo., cut temple; Mrs. Edith Carlock Flippin, Ark., knee injured; Wm. Weeks, Butler, scalp wound; Bert Martin mail clerk, Kansas City, scalp wound; Geo. Murdy, fireman shoulder burned; Ed Williams, Butler, bruised.

FIRE AT TILE PLANT.

The drying sheds of the W. S. Dickey Brick & Tile Plant just north of town were discovered to be on fire at an early hour Friday morning and for awhile the entire plant was threatened. A bucket brigade was formed and the firemen with the assistance of the workmen of the plant and citizens present were enabled to save the main building. The cause of the fire is unknown. The damage will amount to between four and five thousand dollars and there was no insurance but the burned buildings will be promptly replaced.

TUBERCULOSIS CAR HERE.

The car which is being sent about the country by the Anti Tuberculosis Association for the purpose of educating the people in regard to the cure and prevention of that dread disease consumption, was here Monday. The interior of the car is fitted up with illustrations and posted with statistics. One of the doctors that was with the car lectured in the Park in the morning. It was very interesting and will go doubt bear good fruit.

DEATH OF MRS. D. T. ROGERS.

Mrs. D. T. Rogers, after a long illness, died at her home in this city Aug. 11, 1910. Her funeral was held at the Baptist church Aug. 12. The funeral services were in charge of Rev. Starling. Burial was made at the Elliot cemetery about 10 miles north east of Rich Hill. The bereaved relatives have the sympathy of all.

"Washclean" is mild and gentle in its effect as harmless as water to the most delicate fabric—this is what makes it good. Get a package from James and give it a severe test.

Mrs. F. Kerrens, of Butler, who had been visiting the family of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. Mattoon, returned to her home Friday noon.

The ball games played last Thursday between the Rich Hill team and the Cherokee Indians were both won by the Indians. The score was 7 to 2 in the afternoon and 6 to 2 at night.

Mrs. Will Flora is expecting two of her sisters from Eldorado Springs this week on a visit.

Rev. Todd will preach at Bethel Sunday morning at eleven o'clock.

We understand the Sprague boys have their instruments for a new band and are ready to begin practicing. Hurrah for Sprague.

Rev. Wright of Nevada, did not give his lecture Thursday night owing to sickness. The house well filled, three fine speakers were present and even the dogs were interested. They want more protection for their homes as there were four in the church barking at once. Our country dogs are not so much interested.

Mr. Hockedy and family spent Sunday at M. Burkholder's.

Mr. Fred Crabb has been following the painters trade, he began on his residence and has made a wonderful improvement.

There was a large crowd at the Yaotes sale Monday stock sold well.

Mrs. Frank Burkholder is on the sick list.

Mr. W. T. Smith's little boy who was on the sick list last week is improving.

Mrs. J. C. Handley of Rich Hill spent a few days with her daughter, Mrs. E. L. Hedden last week.

We were sorry to hear of the death of such a useful christian as Mrs. D. T. Rogers. To see the large procession of friends and lovely flowers if nothing more one would feel that it was not all of life to live or not all of death to die. The fine sermon preached by her young pastor certainly ought to have a great influence on all that heard it. The bereaved family have the sympathy of many friends.
